But your dead will live, LORD;
their bodies will rise—
let those who dwell in the dust
wake up and shout for joy—your dew is like the dew of the morning;
the earth will give birth to her dead. Isaiah 26:19

Due to the hazards and health mandates caused by the corona virus pandemic we will not be meeting together at our church building for a few weeks. Changing circumstances will be considered carefully from day to day, in the hope that we can soon resume our usual fellowship and a more normal course of life. Let's all be praying for good outcomes as millions of people struggle with the efforts to curtail this outbreak of disease.

In the meanwhile, we will try to stay in close contact as much as we can via phone, internet, cards, and such resources as we have available.

Encourage each other!.

Announcements

- Be aware that because of undesirable traffic in our parking lot we have resumed chaining both front and back entrances. There is now a combination lock on the chains. You can get the combination from Chuck or any of the deacons or elders.
- Because of current health warnings in effect we are not meeting at the building for the next couple of weeks. We are currently using Facebook live for Sunday morning unity and Zoom for Sunday evening and Wednesday evening.
- The elders and deacons agreed to reevaluate our suspended meetings April 4. In the current circumstances it seems very unlikely we'll be able to meet together at the building by April 5. We will most likely not have our typical April potluck gathering.
- Several of us were glad to see each other via video connections last Sunday evening and Wednesday evening. It isn't a real substitute for singing and praying and worshipping together, but we're thankful for the technology and were blessed in those "meetings"

Current Memory Verses:

Titus 2:1-5 You must teach what is in accord with sound doctrine. 2 Teach the older men to be temperate, worthy of respect, self-controlled, and sound in faith, in love and in endurance. 3 Likewise, teach the older women to be reverent in the way they live, not to be slanderers or addicted to much wine, but to teach what is good. 4 Then they can train the younger women to love their husbands and children, 5 to be self-controlled and pure, to be busy at home, to be kind, and to be subject to their husbands, so that no one will malign the word of God. (NIV)

This and That

"We laugh at honor and are shocked to find traitors in our midst."
 "There is but one good; that is God. Everything else is good when it looks to Him and bad when it turns from Him." - C S Lewis
