

Books of the Bible Puzzle

Unscramble the name of each book of the Bible and write it correctly in the blank. Then write the letter from each numbered position in the corresponding blank at the bottom of the page. You'll spell a phrase that's used to describe the word of God.

We've done the first one for you as an example.

Romans 14:8
If we live, we live for the Lord; if we die, we die for the Lord.
Therefore, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.

Announcements

- ➔ It has been a blessing for those who have been able to come out to the building. We welcome those who have been able to come in person, and hope you are encouraged by our time together in Jesus Christ.
- ➔ Schools are reopening in the next couple of weeks.
- ➔ Remember in prayer:
 - Mary, Louise, and others who have been unable to return to services due to the virus.
 - Tyler Lopeteguy, Louise's grandson-in-law, he is a sheriff.
 - Rachel Solis as she recovers from her hand surgery.
 - Keturah Fry in Long Beach for schooling
 - Lori Wattenbarger is facing difficulties as school policies are closing with health concerns.
 - Our leaders, especially our elders, as they attempt to shepherd the church through these difficult times.

Memory Verse

Psalm 34:7

*Be still before the Lord and wait patiently for him;
Do not fret when people succeed in their ways,
When they carry out their wicked schemes.*

Words from Corrie Ten Boom:

When a train goes through a tunnel and it gets dark, you don't throw away the ticket and jump off. You sit still and trust the engineer.

There is no pit so deep that God's love is not deeper still.

Happiness isn't something that depends on our surroundings; It's something we make inside ourselves.
